

Hayden Prize for High School Junior Students

Amount: $10,000

The Hayden Prize serves to recognize high school junior students who demonstrate excellence in historical research and/or creative writing on themes or issues related to Mark Twain's life and work. Students will apply via written application in the first round. Four finalists will be chosen and afforded access to Quarry Farm for research and/or writing. The finalists will submit a final project or research paper and one student will be selected to win $10,000.

Eligibility: High school junior living and attending school in Chemung, Steuben, Schuyler, or Yates counties with demonstrated interest in historical research and/or creative writing.

Application:

Round 1: Apply via written submission by visiting www.communityfund.org and click "Student Login" in the top right corner. Apply to the Hayden Prize by November 30.

Round 2: Four finalists will be selected and afforded access to Quarry Farm to work on Final Projects. One winner will receive $10,000
